Focus

- Litigation

Detail-oriented South Florida attorney guiding clients through sophisticated commercial litigation cases.

Jessica is an associate attorney in the GrayRobinson Miami office. Her practice focuses on complex commercial litigation, including class actions, spanning state and federal commercial cases, and she serves as a valuable resource through pretrial litigation. Jessica excels in meticulous document review, comprehensive case strategy, ensuring compliance, and identifying negotiation and settlement opportunities.

While in law school, Jessica was a judicial intern for the Honorable Judge Ungaro of the Southern District Court of Florida and the Honorable Judge Gordo of the Florida Third District Court of Appeals, where she refined her legal research and drafting skills. She was an active contributor to the Human Rights Clinic, advocating for housing rights in Miami, and the co-author of a publication exploring the intersection of race and housing rights. Jessica also served as executive editor for the University of Miami Inter-American Law Review and litigation director of the Business Law Society.

Prior to joining GrayRobinson, Jessica acquired commercial and healthcare litigation experience at a complex commercial litigation boutique in Miami.
